Information for Authors

Original articles will be considered for publication with the understanding that they are contributed only to the Illinois Medical Journal. The Journal assumes no responsibility for the opinions and claims expressed in the articles contributed.

Manuscripts should be submitted in duplicate, an original copy and one carbon, and typed with double spacing. An article should not exceed 4,500 words, should be briefer if possible.

Footnotes and references should conform to the following style in the order given: Name of author; title of article; name of periodical, with volume, page, month—day of month if weekly—and year. The Illinois Medical Journal does not assume responsibility for the accuracy of references used with scientific articles.

The first page should list the title, the name of the author (or authors), degrees, and any institutional or other credits. The title should be as short as possible. Pages should be numbered consecutively. Tables are to be typed, numbered, and accompanied by a brief descriptive title. Make drawings and charts in black ink. If photographs are submitted, send black and white glossies. Number illustrations consecutively and their place indicate in the text. Number, indicate the top, and place the author's name on the back of each illustration. Number legends and type them following the main body of the manuscript, not on the illustrations.

Order blanks for reprints will be sent to the author at the time of publication and should be returned promptly.

Address manuscripts to T. R. Van Dellen, M.D., Editor, Illinois Medical Journal, 360 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago 1, Illinois.
